

Contents

Foreword	1
1 The Global Crisis	4
War; Population; The Environment; Resources; Social Disintegration; Supermarkets; Empires; Economic Theory
2 War, Democracy & Morality	18
Breakdown of Nations; Why War?; Society Out of Control; Community Structures & Size; The Mass Society; Individual Power
3 Mass Politics	27
EUrope; 'Terrorists', 'Insurgents' and 'Rebels'; The Principle of Division; Democracy and Modern Communication; The Supremacy of Values
4 Which Path?	35
Mass Perils; Market Values; Appropriate Size; Organic Political Structures; How?
5 Making Local Government Local	45
Local Power; Village Power; National Government Versus Community; Surrealism; Local Parliaments; A Changing World; Statesmanship; The Moral Problem; Community Morality; Bureaucratic Cost
6 Resolving the Problem of War	62
Advertising Power; War Versus Local Democracy; War and Economics; Israel and The Arabs; The Problem of Violence; Democracy and Peace
7 Mass Communication	75
The Local Worldview; The Media; The Media and Motoring; Competition; Political Monopoly; Media Priorities; Responsibility; An Alternative; Local Differences; Morality and The Microchip; Media Democracy
8 The Democratic Deficit	95
Democratic Credit Control; Resource Utilisation Objectives; Usury; Money Control and Democracy; Money Politics; Society Under Attack; Promoting Democratic Money
9 Survival	109
Appendix 1	116
Open letter from The Archbishop of Canterbury to the leaders of the main political parties (2005)
Appendix 2	118
Annotated Bibliography
Index	120