

Contents

Frederick Steier and Jane Jorgenson Foreword: Patterns That Connect Patterns That Connect	5
Mary Catherine Bateson The Double Bind: Pathology and Creativity	11
Will McWhinney The White Horse: A Reformulation of Bateson's Typology of Learning	22
Frederick Steier Exercising Frame Flexibility	36
Thomas Hylland Eriksen Mind the Gap: Flexibility, Epistemology and the Rhetoric of New Work	50
Peter Harries-Jones Understanding Ecological Aesthetics: The Challenge Of Bateson	61
Bradford Keeney Circular Epistemology and the Bushman Shamans: A Kalahari Challenge to the Hegemony of Narrative.	75
Douglas Flemons May the Pattern be With You	91
Thomas E. Malloy, Carmen Bostic St. Clair, and John Grinder Steps to an Ecology of Emergence.	102
Kenneth N. Cissna and Rob Anderson A Failed Dialogue? The 1975 Meeting of Gregory Bateson and Carl Rogers	120
Wendy Leeds-Hurwitz The Natural History Approach: A Bateson Legacy	137
Alfonso Montuori Gregory Bateson and the Promise of Transdisciplinarity	147
Column: Louis H. Kauffman Virtual Logic—The One and the Many	159
ASC Pages: Peter Harries-Jones Gregory Bateson, Heterarchies, and the Topology of Recursion	168
Book Reviews and Announcements	175