

Special Double Issue
Heinz von Foerster, 1911–2002

Contents

Foreword: The Oroborous and the Glass Bead Game
Søren Brier and Ranulph Glanville 5

Articles

Bernhard Poerksen: “At each and every moment, I can decide who I am” 9

Heinz von Foerster and Karl H. Müller: Action without Utility.
An Immodest Proposal for the Cognitive Foundations of Behavior 27

Monika Bröcker: Between the lines: The part-of-the-world-position of Heinz von Foerster 51

Albert Müller: Heinz von Foerster’s Archives 67

Louis H. Kauffman: Eigenforms — Objects as Tokens for Eigenbehaviors 73

Ranulph Glanville: Machines of Wonder and Elephants that Float through Air. . . 91

Marcelo Pakman: Elements for a Foersterian Poetics in Psychotherapeutic Practice 107

Frederick Steier and Jane Jorgenson: Ethics and Aesthetics of Observing Frames 124

Bernard Scott: “Heinz von Foerster — An Appreciation” (Revisited) 137

Gerard de Zeeuw: Discovering Social Knowledge 150

Stuart Umpleby: Heinz von Foerster and the Mansfield Amendment. 161

ASC Pages

Pille Bunnell: Reflections on the Phrase “Standing on the Shoulders of Giants” 164

Column

Ranulph Glanville: A (Cybernetic) Musing: In Praise of Buffers. 169

Book Reviews by Ole Thyssen and Ranulph Glanville 179

Personal Tributes by Frank Galuszka (p. 189), Klaus Krippendorff (p. 195), Cornelia Bessie (p. 197), Tom von Foerster (p. 202) and Andy von Foerster (p. 204)

The artists are Frank Galuszka and Christina Waters, the poet is Bill Schiffer